

St Aidan

Tone 6 Podoben Melody On the third day

$\text{♩} = 120$

A-rise, ye Christi - an peo - ples and let us praise the wondrous Ai - dan, a hier - arch who was bles - sed by God he was a tire - less hus - band - man of the vine - yard of the Ho - ly Church and with cries of ju - bil - a - tion

let us de - clare be - fore all na - tions that he is our fer - vent in - ter - ces - sor

Conclusion

be - fore the throne of the Lord of Lords O Lin - dis - farne thou Ho - ly Isle

2 1

washed ev - er - last - ing - ly by the waves of the sea as thou didst be-hold

2 1

the spi - rit - ual strug - gles and feats of the ho - ly hier - arch Aid - an

2 1

thy ve - ry stones bear wit - ness to the glo - ry he hath won with Christ

Conclusion

Where-fore, as thou art exalted a - bove the tides raise us up - to - praise - him

1 2

Kings and no - bles honoured thee but thou gavest their gifts un - to the poor in Christ

1 2

thereby showing thyself to be a model of Christian virtue and cha-ri-ty

1

where-fore thou hast been crowned in the hea-vens

Conclusion

by the right hand of the Al-migh-ty O glor-i-ous Ai-dan